Hold'em

Each player is dealt two cards to begin. After the first round of betting, three cards are turned up in the center of the table for all to share. There is another round of betting and then the fourth community card is exposed. Another round of betting takes place. The fifth card is exposed and a final round of betting takes place. The best five cards play.

Omaha

This is a version of Hold'em except each player receives four down cards. Five community cards are shared and each player must play two cards from his hand and three from the board.

Omaha High-Low Split

Split pot games use a qualifier of eight or better for low. A player may use any two cards from his hand for high and the same or any other combination of two cards for low.

Seven Card Stud

A total of seven cards are dealt to a player, two down and one up at the beginning, with the low card by suit (Clubs, Diamonds, Hearts and Spades ranked from the lowest to the highest) initiating the action. On subsequent rounds, the high hand on board initiates the betting action. The last card is dealt face down.

Seven Card Stud High-Low 8 or Better

An eight (8) qualifier is needed to make a low hand. This means you must have a five card hand with no pairs and no card higher than an eight to win the low (Aces are low). The low card by suit initiates betting on the first round. An Ace counts as a high card for this purpose.
